Pregnant or have a young child?
Concerned about what to do next?
Looking for advice on parenting or general support?
Our qualified practitioners and volunteers are here to help with a non-judgemental approach.

Caroline Chisholm Society can provide support with pregnancy, early parenting, and young children, and assist in connecting with services in your local community, including Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) support (translation services available).

We also have material goods available, including:

- Nursery equipment
- Clothing, including packs from 00000-10
- Maternity and larger children's clothing
- Change bags
- Other items to help when your baby is born
